Fresh, home grown strawberries were cleaned and prepared for a great feast of strawberry shortcake with biscuits or short-cake topped with ice cream on Monday March 13th. Thank you Myrna and all her volunteers for doing this event which we look forward to every year.

Kudos to master quilter, Bonnie Carter. Her amazing quilt is like a Vango art piece! Sue Smith honored her son-in-law with a quilt of his years in the police force. All of the quilters put so much time and patience into the quilts and into the quilt show. Thank you to all crafters for this very successful event for our park. The donations of treats by park people were delicious & very much appreciated. Thank you all!

IN REMEMBRANCE OF

FIDELINA MURPHY AUGUST 4, 1935—FEBRUARY 26, 2023

FiFi, as we all knew her, passed away February 26 at the age of 87 at the home of son. She is now happily united with her loving husband, Bill, and our Lord for eternity. FiFi is survived by her two children, Billy and Debbie and her brother, Bill. Fifi took up work as a seamstress and enjoyed modeling the clothes of her own creation. FiFi was a resident of Tippecanoe for several years and could be seen walking her little poodle around the park. We all marveled at how FiFi would drop his leach and when he was tired of waiting for her, he would just head for home. Her unique sense of humor and nurturing spirit will be dearly missed.
